Dr. E. Gardner Jacobs
President

President's Message

I shall always have a special feeling about you, the Class of 1962. We have both arrived at significant beginnings. You, who are ready to embark on your careers in the business world, and I, who was privileged to be elected your president this year. Now both of us, you and I, are in a position to realize some of our hopes and dreams for a brighter future.

You now possess the business education that has carried thousands of Bryant graduates to success. I am confident that you will justify the sacrifices of your parents and the diligent instruction of your teachers. I am certain that you will bring to your first position not only the business training for which Bryant is known, but those qualities of leadership, character and integrity, which you developed by taking such an active and responsible part in our campus life.

As for me, I shall continue in my unwavering goal to keep our academic standards high, to develop our institution culturally and physically to meet the challenge of the space age. You have seen many changes on this campus since you came here as freshmen, and you will see many more when you come back as cherished alumni. Let us both go forth armed with knowledge, good cheer and the confidence that "Nothing is impossible to men and women of faith and conviction.

Gardner Jacobs

Dr. Henry L. Jacobs, LL.D.
President Emeritus

We Dedicate with Pride . . .

The Class of 1962
respectfully dedicates
this issue of the LEDGER to our
New President

Dr. E. Gardner Jacobs

This dedication is but a small token
of our appreciation for his more than forty years of devotion to making
Bryant College
tops in its field.

... The Three Faces of Comedy ...

ANTIC SPRING by Robert Neil was a delightful play in which six young people had a few bizarre adventures while on a peaceful, leisurely picnic.

18 WASHINGTON SQUARE SOUTH by Madeline L'Engle was a new treatment of the old theme of what happens when girls go husband hunting.

The plays and the cast are as follows:

THE BOOR

Helena Debbie Lindenberg
Grigori George Rivard
Luka Robert Eisner

18 WASHINGTON SQUARE, SOUTH

Emily Harriet Matikin
Jacqueline Mary Casey
Mrs. Harvey Maureen Monfret
Hamlet Anne Yarborough
Veronica Patti Toof
Geoffrey Tom Wallace
Robert (Still Open)

ANTIC SPRING

Ginger Kathy Cuillo
Gwendolyn Tina Neil
Blossom Patti Toof
Robert Dick Bey
Sam Jerry Darsky
Elbert Bill Bauser

THE BOOR by Anton Tchekoff is a classic that has delighted audiences around the world for years. A story of a tough Russian who tried to collect a bill from a beautiful woman, it reveals why the woman is usually master of the situation under such circumstances.

The Masquers

Director:
Mr. David Brooks

George Rivard, Tina Neil, Deborah Lindenberg, R. Soucy, Paula Swanson, Robert Eisner, Carolyn Marsis.

O r c h e s t r a

The Orchestra, under the direction of Professor Handy played at the basketball games, dances and socials. They were always ready and always good.

PHOTO REFLEX STUDIO

... and won't it be your photograph that you and your grandchildren look for first? That's a lot of looking ahead, but it illustrates the permanence ... the interest ... of a fine photograph. Fine photographs of you are our concern ... a photograph you will proudly give as a personal present ... a photograph you will look back on happily years from now. We hope that when you want a fine photograph taken again, you entrust it to us — your official school photographer.

quo vadis?

...into BUSINESS?—Never before has there been so great a demand for business-career graduates. Business and industry are constantly in search of superior young people with the kind of training you have received at Bryant College.

...into TEACHING?—It's a great adventure—it's exciting—it offers an unusual opportunity to help others—it provides the assurance of security, the respect of the community, and a sense of worthy accomplishment.

Whatever your goal . . . whatever your aspirations—our congratulations and sincere wishes for your success!
